

—Photo by The Times-Picayune.

TUNING UP Tuesday afternoon for an appearance at the second concert of the Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans were Elizabeth Burke, 12, harpist and winner of the society's 1955 audition and Charles Levie, 15, pianist who was one of the 1956 audition winners. The young artists will play at the society's second of four concerts Saturday at 11 a. m. at Dixon hall on the Newcomb college campus. Also scheduled to play on Saturday's program is Charlotte Bergeron, of Paincourtville, La., who was also a 1956 audition winner.