

Young Artists to End Series of Recitals

"Young Artists" of the Junior Philharmonic Society will present the group's last program of the season Friday at 8:15 p. m. at Dixon Hall.

Performers will include Wanda Kendrick, piano; Carole Edwards, soprano, and Marilyn Bagwell, contralto.

STATES ITEM
Making its first appearance will be the society's dance group, which has trained this year in the Junior Philharmonic Dance Workshop under the direction of Frances Bush. Paintings of Degas will be the theme of the dance presentation.

The program will be concluded with the annual presentation of Junior Philharmonic Keys to audition winners who have appeared on the recital series this season.
