WINNERS LISTED

TP ————— 2/19/61

Will Appear on Jr. Philharmonic Programs

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans has announced the 17 winners of its annual auditions held Saturday in Dixon Hall on the Newcomb campus. Seven alternates were also chosen.

Mrs. Henry Mayer, society president, who made the announcement, said that the winners will appear as soloists during the 1961-62 season of the Junior Philharmonic Society.

Judging the auditions were Mrs. Jean Ivey, Mrs. Chester S. Olsen, Miss Valerie Smith, Richard Rivers and Mrs. Ralph Friedel.

Winners and alternates follow: Junior division (through 13 years of age) — Edward Moulin and Jerry Hilding, winners, piano duo; Barbara Wizer, Paula Sigler, Carolyn Bain, and Angela Dean, all winners, piano solo; Mercedes Moulin and Annette Johnson, winners, solo dance; Ann Brennand and Ray Pledger, alternates, piano solo; and Barbara Ann Green, alternate, solo dance.

Intermediate division (ages 14 years through 17 years) — Laura Ann Trotter, Bette Kessler, Dana Fletcher, Lois Halle, Gloria Sue Cox and Linda Marie Wauldren, all winners, piano solo; Beth Nielson, alternate, piano solo; and Glenda Kay Jeter, alternate, vocal.

Young Artists division (18 years and over)—Jeanette Theriot, winner, vocal; William C. Wharton Jr., winner, cello solo; Gilbert Romé and Marietta Webster, winner, dance duo; Andrew Kuhn, alternate, piano solo; and Elizabeth Barrett, alternate, viola solo.
