

—Photos by The Times-Picayune.

FOUR YOUTHS TO PERFORM IN RECITAL SERIES

The Junior Philharmonic Society recently held auditions to select talented young artists to perform in recitals held under supervision during the year. The three categories of the competition are represented by Terry Tortorich (upper left), for singing, Mercedes Moulin (top left), dancing, and duo pianists Johnny Bonch and Frank Zimmerman. There were more winners named in each category, and they, too, will be featured in the performances. For those interested in information about next year's auditions, write Auditions Chairman, 15 Nassau dr., Metairie, Louisiana.