

The Times-Picayune

—Photo by The Times-Picayune.

SARAH NEHER AND KIM SMITH WILL PERFORM IN THE SEASON'S FINAL JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC RECITAL

Two pianists, a flutist, a soprano, and a ballerina will offer solo performances in the concert to begin at 8 p.m. Friday, May 3, in Dixon Hall on the Newcomb College campus. The program will conclude with the presentation of annual awards.

F

S. Sa
is bc
in st5
La
bi ar
to
deN
ch
lik
cu
co

Concert to Feature Artists and Awards

Solo performances by five young artists and the presentation of awards will be featured on the season's final Junior Philharmonic Society concert to begin at 8 p.m. Friday, May 3, in Dixon Hall on the Newcomb College campus.

Dan Miller, a 12-year-old pianist from Lafayette, will open the program by playing "The Bear" by Rebikoc, Diversion No. 9 by Muczynski, and Four Louisiana-French Folk Songs arranged by Brown. A four-year student of the instrument, Dan has also won superior ratings in organ and violin and was the 1973 district winner of the Louisiana Music Teachers Association Rally. Son of Mrs. David Miller, Dan is a seventh grader at L. J. Alleman School.

Sixteen-year-old flutist, Kim Smith, will follow with a performance of Concertino by Chaminade. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McRee J. Smith, Kim has studied flute for six years. A junior at Grace King High School, she has played with the Jefferson Parish and District Honor Bands. Last summer she won a scholarship to the L.S.U. Quintet Workshop, and she was recently selected to join the Collegiate Wind Band.

Soprano Linda Council, a senior at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, has studied voice for four years and piano for 10 years. She has performed prominent roles in many U.S.L. Opera Guild productions including Gretel in "Hansel and Gretel," Latitia in "The Old Maid and the Thief," and Suzanna in "The Marriage of Figaro." She has also appeared as a soloist with the U.S.L. Chamber Choir and Chorale. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Council, Linda is a member of the Vermillion and Kappa Delta Pi honor societies. On the Friday program she will sing "Du bist die Ruh" by Schubert, "Steal Me Sweet Thief" by Menotti, and Five Greek Songs by Ravel.

Sonata in E by Scarlatti, "Minstrels" by Debussy, Nocturne in E Minor by Field, and American Prelude No. 6 by Ginastera will be played by 17-year-old pianist Susie Thompson. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Thompson of Opelousas, Susie is also first flutist and drum major of the Opelousas Senior High School Band. A seven-year student of the piano, Susie won superior ratings in the National Guild of Piano Teachers Auditions and the Eva Mouton Festival. She is a member of the Ensemble Recitals, sponsored by the Lafayette Piano Teachers Association, and a youth pianist for the Little Zion Baptist Sarah Neher, a nine-year student of ballet, will perform the Danse de Fete from "Coppelia" by Delibes. Daughter of Alton G. Neher and Jean R. Watson, Sarah, a recent graduate of Gateway II Senior High School, plans to continue her studies in New York.

The evening program will conclude with the presentation of the Irving Carr Award, the John Tobin Memorial Award, and the Junior Philharmonic Scholarship Award. Golden Keys will also be given to all of the young artists who have performed during the current season.