

CENTRAL NEWS

This is a FREE publication within our distribution area. Please, patronize the businesses who advertise in this newspaper. It is brought to you by their advertising contained within these pages.

Consecutive Issue No. 225

Wednesday, June 27, 1990

Central News July 4th Schedule

Central News will be closed for observance of the July holiday as follows: The office will be closed all day Monday, July 2nd and all day Wednesday, July 4th. Ad space for the Wednesday, July 4th issue must be reserved by noon on Friday, June 29th. News deadlines are the same as usual. Newspaper delivery for the July 4th issue will be on the usual day. Have a safe and happy 4th of July... please, don't drink and drive!

"I Care" Honors 64 Schools

The "I Care" Program awarded special flags to 64 Baton Rouge Parish schools on Thursday, May 3, in recognition to those schools for their outstanding drug prevention programs. To be an elementary school winner, it must meet 10 criteria including having a "Say No" club and teacher-led Alcohol and Drug Prevention Program in every grade at school. At the high school and middle school levels, staff members must have in-service training on drug prevention and present anti-drug information to students and parents to help the fight against drug abuse. Some of the elementary school winners that are from the Central area or pull students from the Central area are: Brownfields, Greenbrier, Ryan, Tanglewood, and Zachary. Some of the middle school winners that are from the Central area or pull students from the Central area are: Central Middle, Istrouma Middle Magnet, and Park Forest Middle. Some of the high school winners are: Baker High, Belaire High, Central High, and Northeast High. For more information call the "I Care" office at 929-5452.

Local dancers, Amy Sides, Coco Loupe, and Danyelle Knight, chosen for the New Orleans Junior Philharmonic 1990-91 Series. (Photo by Michael's Photography)

Local Dancers Chosen For Junior Philharmonic 1990-91 Series

Three local dancers, Danyelle Knight, Coco Loupe and Amy Sides, were chosen for the New Orleans Junior Philharmonic 1990-91 series beginning in October. As a non-profit organization, the society was founded in 1948 for the purpose of providing young talent the opportunity to perform in a professional atmosphere. Concerts have been held continuously since that time in Dixon Hall on the Newcomb campus.

Performers are chosen by audition in instrumental music, voice or dance each spring for the next season's programs. Concerts are free and open to the public. Danyelle Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Knight, attends Scotlandville Magnet High School where she is a sophomore and member of the Dance Department. Last summer, Miss Knight attended Ballet Magnificat's summer workshop in Jackson, Mississippi. She will be performing this summer in the Baton Rouge Little Theatre's production "The Music Man". Coco Lope is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lope. She was a member of the Scotlandville Magnet High School Dance Ensemble and will attend the University of Southern Mississippi on scholarship as a dance major. Miss Loupe has also (See Local Dancers page 2)

McMorris Named Starkey Valedictorian

Nancy Ann McMorris, a 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McMorris, earned the title of valedictorian of Starkey's class. She was vice-president of the Student Body, member of the Student Club, secretary of FBLA, member of SADD and a member of the yearbook staff. During her senior high school year, Nancy received several high school award medals in Social Studies, Science, and Math. She was involved in volunteer work and was the co-captain of the cheerleaders. Nancy said her goal is to earn a doctorate in Mathematics and become a high school professor. She received a $700.00 Southeastern Louisiana University Freshman Honors Scholarship.

Congratulations Nancy!

Nancy Ann McMorris (Photo by Selser Photography)

Cox Named

Representative Kennard Authors Bill To Protect