THE brilliant, breathless "get-away" of a star back brings the crowd to its feet by a common impulse. Equally natural and spontaneous is the response of smokers to Chesterfield's satisfying goodness, its wholesome smoothness.

No one ever has to 'acquire' a taste for Chesterfield.

Smokers take to its pleasing flavor instinctively.

...And here's why: Chesterfield takes the sure, undeviating course to the one goal that counts in a cigarette—fragrant mildness and a ripened richness, without a hint of harshness or irritation. In short

When Brains Count!

In designing a good motor oil and motor fuel, brains count—just as in football. "Standard" Engineers in the largest petroleum research laboratory in the industry often go into a "huddle". That's one of the reasons why more motorists in this territory use "Standard" than any other brand.

A flapper is sometimes like a golfer. After a long drive she takes a walk.

In this time of depression the Boy Scouts help along economy by lighting fires without matches.

George Bernard Shaw says in his merry way: "My way of joking is to tell the truth. That is the funniest joke in the world."

Gloria Swanson has sued the Marquis Henri de la Falaise de la Coudraye for divorce. Just a "noble" experiment.

Someone has said that before he became a football coach, Knute Rockne was a mail sorter. It'd be easier to believe that he was a baggage smasher.

The kind of car we'd like to own is one that would carry a couple of Austins on davits, in case of accident.

"I say, old thing, may I attend your wedding?"
"Why, I'm not even engaged."
"Oh, I mean as the bridegroom."

She: "Dear, I saw the cutest little hat in a shop today."
Hubby: "Put it on and let me see how you look in it."

1st Tramp: "After I had given her back the lost purse, she put her hand in her pocket and said: 'Take this for a cup of coffee.'"
2nd Tramp: "What did she give you?"
1st Tramp: "Two lumps of sugar."

Southern Conference Play Today

Georgia's clash with the powerful New York University football machine at the Polo Grounds today occupies first interest in Dixie football while Alabama and Florida, meeting in a stadium dedication game at Gainesville is another contest of importance.

Much attention also centers here where Tulane's great Wave plays a greatly improved and potentially threatening Auburn team.

The Plainsmen are coached by Chet Wynne, former Notre Dame star and later head coach at Creighton. Wynne has been bringing the Auburn squad along rapidly and they will give a good account of themselves from now on.

ALMA MATER
Sing these words as Tulane’s Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory
gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e’er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts’ devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

Those Georgia Bulldogs

The battle of the Georgia Bulldogs and the Green Wave of Tulane at the Stadium next Saturday afternoon will be the South's classic of the year regardless of what happens to either the Greenies or Bulldogs today.

If both should be fortunate enough to win today, they will go to the gridiron packing the Championship wallop of the Southern Conference championship in their taped hands and legs. A defeat by Georgia at New York University would have no bearing on the Bulldogs' race for the Dixie title. An upset at the hands of the Plainsmen, however, would remove Tulane.

If Tulane wins, however, today, the game next Saturday will in all probability go a long way toward deciding the Southern championship. It would mean that both Georgia and Tulane will go into the game as unbeaten Southern Conference teams. Georgia only has to win the remaining games on its schedule which includes Alabama to win the title while if Tulane beats Georgia and Georgia or someone else takes Alabama means the Green Wave beyond question is title holder for 1930.

Every football fan in the South will want to be in the stands next Saturday.
