Tulane and Southern Methodist University meet today for the second time on the gridiron. They inaugurated the series in 1943 when the Wave won a hard fought game, 12 to 6.

Like Tulane, S.M.U. has a V-12 unit and many of its players are drawn from that group of students.

The Mustangs are coached by Jimmie Stewart who is well known to football fans of the Southwest Conference. He played his football at S.M.U., his last year being 1924. Coach Stewart is relieving "Matty" Bell as head coach, Bell being a lieutenant commander in the Navy.

S.M.U., as its name indicates, is a denominational institution. It is located in Dallas, Texas, and has an enrollment of 2,000 students.

The Mustang colors are Cardinal Red and Royal Blue.

CLAUDE SIMONS, JR.
Head Coach of Football, Tulane University
Each Friday night during the football season, from 9:45 to 10:00 P.M., Holmes will present Mr. Horace Renegar with interesting football facts and figures. Mr. Renegar is Vice-President of the American College Publicity Association and enjoys the confidence of football coaches and sports authorities throughout the United States.
Tulane university today houses and trains 1100 odd naval students under the accelerated Navy V-12 college training program which has already begun its second year of existence on the campus. The Navy's V-12 educational program embodies training in engineering, medicine and the other sciences as well as business administration.

ROLL ON, TULANE
ten Hoor and Goldstein

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave, you
We have no fear.
Hail, Green Wave, for you we give a cheer
And ev'ry man in ev'ry play
And then we'll win that game today,
Hurrah for Old Tulane!

The Game Isn’t Over ’Til The Last Whistle Blows

Many a game is won in the last second of play . . . the war isn’t over ’til the last battle is won! But, feeling sure of victory, it is so easy for us here at home to think our responsibility is over . . . our duty done. IT ISN’T! Until the last shot has been fired we must stand fast behind the man behind the gun!

Remember Your First Job? . . .

Sure you felt strange—it was all so new and unfamiliar. Everything you’d learn in school seemed to have as little bearing on what went on as last week’s weather forecast.

Chances are the motorman who brought you to town this morning, or the conductor who gave you your transfer, or the bus operator who had to do both, was experiencing something of that same feeling. For since the war hundreds of new operators have replaced those who have entered the armed services. Even with the careful training they are given—much of it “on the platform”, as the saying goes,—there’s always the first time when they go out on their own.

Your patience and friendliness have made it easier for them. You’ve remembered your first job, and overlooked the shortcomings of inexperience.

The spirit of tolerance will help keep vital transportation service going for the duration.

New Orleans’ Most Diversified Program of Music and Entertainment

IN THE FOUNTAIN LOUNGE
At LUNCHEON we invite you to listen to the sweet strains of the Gypsy Ensemble. For COCKTAILS and DANCING, alternately nightly from five o’clock until two the next morning is one of Latin America’s noted Rhumba bands and the Society Music of one of America’s outstanding combinations.

IN THE BLUE ROOM
Each evening, for DINNER and SUPPER DANCING, is presented one of the Nations famous orchestra ... Featured also in the Blue Room Floor Shows at Dinner and Supper, are celebrated stars from radio, stage and screen.

New Orleans’ most discriminating audiences choose the Roosevelt for their war-time relaxation and entertainment.

The Roosevelt
"The Pride of the South"
OHIO STATE-MINNESOTA—The great fireman, Bernie Bierman, is back at Minnesota but he arrived too late to put out this one. Ohio State by a neat margin.

NOTRE DAME-ILLINOIS — The Irish can’t take this one too lightly. McKeever’s lads after a stern tussle.

WISCONSIN-GREAT LAKES—The Badgers are not quite up to this one.

NAVY-PENN—Two of the top teams of the East. Navy, on the rebound, is our choice.

ARMY-DUKE — The Pride of Durham won’t be able to stem Army’s legions. Blanchard to continue pulverizing ’em.

TEXAS-RICE—The Longhorns.

TENNESSEE-CLEMSON — The Longhorns of East Tennessee will mow ’em Tigers down.

MICHIGAN-PURDUE—The nod to the Wolverines.

FLORIDA-MARYLAND — The Gators may gobble the Terrapins. On thin ice, Florida.

L.S.U.-GEORGIA—L.S.U. to mangle the Bulldogs, thereby breaking the chain of defeats for Bernie Moore’s hearties.

COUMBIA-COLGATE—Just two football teams. Colgate.

CALIFORNIA-WASHINGTON—The big game of the day on the West Coast. The Bears.
THE OFFICIALS
And How To Identify Them

The four officials working at intercollegiate games are: Referee, Umpire, Linesman and Field Judge.

The Referee has general oversight and control of the game. His decision upon all matters, not under the jurisdiction of some other official, is final.

The Referee carries a whistle and his position during scrimmage is behind the team with the ball.

The Umpire has jurisdiction over the equipment, conduct and positions of the players and legality of substitutes. He has a horn to indicate a foul. His position during scrimmage is behind the defensive team.

The Linesman works under the supervision of the Referee. His duties are to watch for tripping after a kick or forward pass, encroachment upon the neutral zone and players off side. He marks the position of the ball, and checks the numbers of downs. His position is on or near the sidelines.

The Field Judge has jurisdiction over the timing of the game. He aids the Referee in decisions involving possession of the ball, interference in connection with catching, securing or possession of the ball beyond the line of scrimmage. His position is from 20 to 30 yards behind the team on the defense and toward the side of the field opposite the Linesman.
