ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater! Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully! The incense of thy spirit hath ascended And filled America from sea to sea!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater! Today thy Children look to thee for bread! Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid! The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater! The vista of its glory gleameth far! We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother! There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee! Pledge we now our fealty true Where the trees are ever greenest, Where the skies are purest blue! Hear us now. O Tulane, hear us! As we proudly sing to thee! Take from us our hearts' devotion! Thine we are, and thine shall be!

The side lines come in for their share of attention. Comments and criticism are exchanged. Don't court adverse remarks about your appearance. Be sure you are suitably and correctly attired for the game.

Menville

Since his great plunging in the Auburn game of 1925, Johnny Menville, fullback who once played with Jesuits High School, has been a fixture in the Tulane backfield. His last season of college football is a banner one.

Menville is one of the best backs on the Greenie squad. He can buck the line with the best of them, as well as punt and drop kick. Watch Johnny today and see him make those gains thru the Tiger line!

McCarrol

Gene McCarrol may well be termed the backfield "find" of the season. This fellow saw little action in the early games of the season, but came into his own against Vanderbilt two weeks back. Used at fullback all during the game, McCarrol tore thru the Commodores for many nice gains.

He is a streak of lightning. More than that, he's an intelligent runner, knows how to pick his spots and is excellent at cutting back after knifeing the tackles.

BEAT AUBURN!

Without a doubt the team that will buck the Auburn Tiger today will be in excellent mental and physical condition, and with a new confidence that they are going to play the brand of football that cannot be defeated.

This new spirit is due to the fact that the Greenies realize they have a chance to finish with an even, or .500, record for the season if they can sweep the remaining three games on their schedule. And that's what they are shooting at. Watch them go!

Their opponent today—Auburn—is a mediocre outfit this year. They have had their troubles from the start of the season and are yet to score a victory. After consecutive defeats at the hands of Stetson, Clemson, Florida, L. S. U. and Georgia, the Tigers pulled themselves together and held Howard College to a 9-9 tie last week. They, too, are getting ready for a stirring finish, so the game today should be a hummer.
Today's Tulane line-up will include

Browne        Ends
Ford          Tackles
Stoessel      Guards
Butaud        Quarterback
Rucker        Center
Bill Maier    Halfback
Eskridge      Halfback
Pizzano       Quarterback
Menville      Fullback

For any last minute changes in the line-up and substitutions during the game refer to roster of players and their respective numbers.

RODRIGUES
Halfback—Tulane
Roy hasn’t been in the game very much this year, but when he does get in he adds yardage to the Green Wave’s credit. Those who saw him play against Vanderbilt admit that despite his 150 lbs., he handled his position in the backfield like a veteran.
ONE WEEK AGO

Approximately nine thousand spectators, the largest crowd of the season, saw the Tulane Greenies lose to the Georgia Bulldogs last Saturday afternoon by a score of 31 to 0. They saw those hard-fighting Greenbacks go down in defeat before one of the greatest football machines that has ever performed on a local field.

Captain Pat Browne played a wonderful game for the Green. He backed up the line in fine style and was down under punts with plenty of speed. Johnny Menville, used at end on defense, did fine work too. Bill banker got away for several nice gains but he was a marked man. The Bulldogs watched him darn close. Gene McCarrol and Dick Baumbach acquitted themselves handsomely.

The Auburn Tigers are expected to use the following players in their initial lineup:

- Dubose
- Ingram
- Carter
- Cunningham
- Andress
- Howard
- Paterson
- Shotts

- Crawford
- Ellis

The Tulane Athletic Association requests that parties occupying Boxes be seated during the plays to allow those in the rear to have full vision of the field.

Superior reserve strength again told on the Greenies. The Georgia coach kept shooting new backs at the Greenies all through the contest and Coach Bernie Bierman was forced to use every available Tulane reserve in order to combat with the fresh Bulldog backs. But, of course, the visitors were far better than the Greenie subs.

Georgia scored a touchdown in the first few minutes of play and added two more in both the second and fourth periods. In the third quarter, however, the Greenies made a great stand and held the Bulldogs scoreless. Once they held Georgia for four downs on the one-yard line.

Georgia's two great ends, Shiver and Nash, lived up to everything that had been said about them. They played great ball on the defense.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES

1. GOAL POSTS.—The goal posts have been moved from the goal line to the end line.

2. DELAYING GAME.—A delay of more than 30 seconds in putting the ball in play after it is ready for play, or a team remaining more than 15 seconds in a huddle, may be considered as prima facie evidence of intentional delay of the game.

   The captain may now claim time out only three times in each half instead of four times, as formerly.

3. SHIFT PLAYS.—In all shift or huddle plays the players must come to an absolute stop and remain stationary in their positions and without movement of the feet or swaying of the body for a period of approximately one second. This period may be conveniently measured by rapidly counting "1-2-3-4." In case of doubt the penalty shall be enforced. The penalty for violation has increased from 5 to 15 yards.

4. FUMBIED PUNTS.—When a punt is fumbled before the receiver gains possession of the ball, it is a free ball and any one is eligible to recover the ball for his side. However, the side that kicked the ball can not advance the fumbled punt by picking it up and running with it, but must take it at the point recovered.

5. INCOMPLETE BACKWARD PASS.—Any player may at any time hand or throw the ball in any direction except toward his opponents’ goal. If any such pass made on first, second or third down strikes the ground within the field of play the ball is dead. It shall belong to the side which made the pass at the point where it strikes the ground. On fourth down the ball shall go to the opponents at the same point, unless the required distance has been made. The pass from the snapper back to put the ball in play is excepted from this rule.
TEAMWORK

The brain and brawn and courage of eleven Tulanians, co-ordinated into a fighting machine, battle for the glory of old T. U. It requires all of these attributes to spell success, to write victory on the scoreboard.

Similarly it requires brain and brawn, and courage and teamwork on the part of the 4320 members of the Public Service team, to win and hold esteem through giving dependable electric, gas and street rail way service every hour night and day.

New Orleans Public Service, Inc.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—-

“Peggy” Flournoy led the individual scorers of the country in 1925?
Members of the 1900 team were the first to be awarded official “T” sweaters?
A pass from Moore to George enabled Tulane to tie Alabama, 5-5, in 1909?
Johnny Wight ran the kick-off back 96 yards against Southwestern in 1920?
THE SCORE BOARD

Watch It Carefully For Complete Information

Often only the officials and captains know what a certain penalty is for. We have sketched out the following to inform you. Each penalty is numbered below. When a penalty is inflicted the number of that penalty will be hung on the scoreboard, and light will appear opposite the name of player carrying the ball or receiving a pass.

Please understand violations of rules are rarely intentional. They usually come from over-anxiousness, excitement and most often from the highly technical character of the present game.
