MEET "DOC" AND BERNIE

Bernie W. Bierman, whom Ed Danforth of The Atlanta Constitution described as "Bemoaning Bernie" has hopes of watching this year's Green Wave wash away his pessimism.

"The Man", as the football players call him, doesn't feel at all downcast over the prospects.

Coach Bierman has developed what is apparently a great combination for 1929 and Dixie fans are pointing to the Wave as dark horse for the Southern Conference championship race.

Bernie received his training at Minnesota in the "good old days" before the Big Push, speaking of course of the little old engagement across the large pond.

He won his spurs at Minnesota in 1913, 1914 and 1915—being selected as all-American halfback during his career.

Bernie was high point scorer of the Big Ten one year although he was out of several games. He scored ten touchdowns in four Western Conference games that year, leading his team to victories over Chicago and Wisconsin.

And he was some student too. He won the Western Conference medal in 1916 which is awarded to the best athlete, scholar and man most active in student life.

He won his letter also three years in track, football and basketball.

Bierman's system of football is mostly original. He stresses speed and fundamentals above all things. His backfields have always relied on speed mixed with intricate plays.

This year is, of course, still a big question mark but the team dressed in Green will be feared until the last gun.

Bierman teams are that way!
HI! TED!

Ladies and gentlemen, we are now presenting for your approval Football’s Giant! The only one in captivity! A man mountain! None other than his highness—he is 6 ft. 4—Theodore Cox!

Ted as he is called was a great football player and is a great line coach. A fine gentleman, a hard working coach who gets results and a man who makes friends with his warm personality is Tulane’s line coach.

As a football player at Minnesota in 1922, 1923 and 1924, he was one of the greatest tackles the Great North County ever produced. He was captain in ’24 and all-Western tackle.

He coached Wisconsin State Teachers College in 1925 and 1926 and then in ’27 came to the New Orleans institution as freshman coach, in which capacity he served until this autumn. While coaching in Wisconsin he was offered the place of athletic director but declined to come to Tulane with Bernie.

At the New Orleans institution he has made football players and friends and is still turning both out rapidly.

Much more could be said for the fine qualities of Tex Cox!

PETE MAILHES

Pete Mailhes, scrum coach at Tulane for the past three years, is a familiar character on the Tulane campus and no introduction is necessary.

Pete, whose job it is to light the fires of varsity football in the potential material of which scrubs are made, does his task well.

He played football at Tulane in 1912, 13, 14 and 15. He was captain in 1915, playing fullback that year. In other years he was a tackle.

TED BANKS

Ted Banks, new freshmen coach at Tulane, has plenty of material on hand this season to work with and Ted has shown that he is the man to use it properly.

He played quarterback at Michigan for three years and the Wolverines never lost a game in which he participated. Some record?

Banks before coming to Tulane had served as coach at the Patterson, La., high school where he developed fine teams. He has three of his old Patterson players here with him this season.

IT'S MASSEY!
Albert Massey is a big blood huck who never knows when he is stopped. My how he has hit that line in scrimmage!
He is another triple threat and has a big motion when he is running tackle that almost makes him a four man threat. Anyway, he is hard to stop.
This youngster, who never played football before last year, should he headed from plenty before the brown days of November.
"Lend a fll old eye in his direction—My, my, ain't that football perfection."
Anyway, he is good. Don't take our word. Watch number 22.

CHARLIE, MY BOY!
Charlie Tucker, captain of the 1928 team, will be a charging tackle as usual this season. He has been sending his 295 pounds into the line with great force in scrimmage and is ready lor today's combat.
Tucker, with Elmer McCause, at the other tacki, both ball from Pine Bluff, Ark. The Pine Bluff team with these two tackles in the line have sent strong claim to the national scholastic title and their championship laurels were as strong as any.
This season Charle will be using his football career and he expects to make every week a humdinger.
His number, in case you care for statistics, is 33.

GERALD DALRYMPLE
Tulane fans have waited a long time to see Gerald Dalrymple, in action at the end opposite Jack Holland. They have speculated on what a combination that will be.

Today, in the sky their dreams come true.
Dalrymple, with a broken leg last season and a great freshman player in 1927, will be on the field this afternoon. His number, ladies and gentlemen if you can more figures, will be 29.
Dalrymple is ready and so are we. So let's get going—gang!
Watch Tulane's ends a while this afternoon. You may get a thrill equal to any backfield performance of the day. Half the game is played in the line, and to miss half is to miss just so much of the football game.

BOOM! BILL!
Here is the Blood Flax, Tropical Typing, a what have you—Billy Banker!
Bill Kelly, them just like this, watch him! Ah, though often reproduced, this "shot" never growed—h a photographic classic, nothing less.
Captain Banker has high hopes of leading his Dart's Green Wave to the loveliest pub in years at a big squad with him have the game ambition.
Banker in 1926 was the second highest yean who is America. Only K in Strong of New York; tivity was able to boast a higher gald.
Banker is a triple threat man, passing, running, kicking.

BY JACK!
Jack Holland is being heralded as one of the greatest end prospects in Dixie this season and he has every intention of coming through to all second guessers' predictions.
Holland is a terrific pace player, bring in the game with a world of energy every minute and he will be hard to cut out of plays this season.
He is plenty fast and has shown a knack of scrimmage this year of pulling down passes and selling out for opposing goal lines. And, we all know, coaches like those sort of things.
Holland may get the chance of opening aggressiveness with Georgia Tech's pride and joy this year—Tom Jones.
What a battle of ends that will be.

DICK BAUMBACH!

Here is a great little quarterback and Tulane should find his play of brilliance unsurpassed this season. He passes well, is a clear thinker and can advance the ball.

When his overhead heaves start going down field it may give opponents something to work with. His ability to pass has made him a vital cog in the Green machine.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS GET REDUCTION THIS YEAR

High school students are finding a little extra money for sodas this season in the reduction of prices in season football tickets. The books are selling at 205 St. Charles street at $4 this year instead of $5 as last year.

The demand has been great and from the sales it looks as if every high school student in the city of New Orleans will be a Greenie fan. That's the spirit that makes great football centers. New Orleans is fast becoming that.
A Such of Shorts

Back Green Wave

Be on hand for every Greenie game. If they win, sing the praises of Bierman's men; if they lose and put forth their best, keep in mind that no man can do more and give the conqueror his due. Sportsmanship is the biggest thing in sport. Sports without it is effort misspent, training gone wrong, a spirit unfair and as big as all, it's a failure so far entertainment is concerned.

In other words, learn to enjoy football for the sake of the game. There's bigger things than the end of the score sometimes. It's how you play the game that counts.

Remember that Tulane is playing no set-ups. Texas A. & M., Auburn, Georgia, Louisiana State, Sewanee, Mississippi A. & M.—they all have the same ambitions that Tulane has. It is the fire to win. All can't win. But the experts say Tulane looks good.

Morgan Blake.

THE KIDS ARE LEARNING

Hundreds of New Orleans kids, under the age of 12, will each Saturday morning avail themselves of the opportunity of learning football fundamentals under expert players.

A 9 to 11 a.m. school at the old Tulane practice field is being conducted by Jack Scraon, Peggy Fronnroy, Brother Brown, Monk Simons, Ted Banks and other authorities. The kids today are the guests of Tulane at the game.

Sports editor of the Atlanta Journal declares the Greenies the "most dangerous dark horse that ever snorted at the barrier."

Ed Danforth, sports editor of the Atlanta Constitution says "Tulane has only one team to beat to be champions — Georgia Tech." In true Atlanta style, however, he adds he don't believe that will occur. We shall see.

Jimmie Burns, sports editor, The Atlanta Georgian, declares "any team heading for New Orleans with the idea they have a soft spot ha'lt better detour."

Ralph Wheatley Allen, Edith Breitz, Brian Bell and other big shots of the Associated Press: Frank Getty and Harry J. Holloway of the United Press: Lawrence Perry and others like Tulane this year.

Fred Digby, Bill Keeffe and Harry Martinez of the local papers declare no better schedule has ever been offered in this section than that of the Greenies this year.

Football Headquarters

Whenever you are in New Orleans—whether for a football game or for a more extended visit—make your headquarters at the Roosevelt or The Bien­ville. Modern in every way and conveniently located to any part of the city they will add immense enjoyment to your stay.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

Next to Stock Exchange
Here are a couple of big shots from Natchitoches. Nesom a 185 pound tackle, shows promise of being one of the best in this section during his career and the fans who watch him probably will get plenty of action.

He is one of those slashing type of forwards who knifes through and gets the ball carrier before he gets to the line of scrimmage.

It will be interesting to note his success today against the blond blizzard.

Berry is a great little hack, who shoots off tackle, around the ends or where have you just when you expect jabs least.

Keep an eye on his direction today. At any time, he may get away for a first down here or there.

In fact, Louisiana Normal fans expect Berry to be one of the best backs in the S. I. A. A. this season.

THE SPIRIT OF THE GAME

—As an institution whose fortune is inseparably connected with that of New Orleans, the Public Service family is backing "The Green Wave" heart and soul.

—But aside from that, it's a man's game this football business. In rain, slush, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, the true football player fights on to win the game.

—Similarly, the Public Service game requires men. In storm, rain, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, street cars must move, electric lights must burn, gas must flow—at all times, in all weather. That's a man's game, too, and men who play it can understand the spirit of men who fight out on the grid.

YOU KNOW MONK

It's hard to find Trainer Monk Simons these days when he has time to tell you a few things about his football days let alone to pose for a picture. Modesty and pressure of looking after the physical welfare of the varsity keeps Monk from saying much.

Anyway, you can put it down that Claude Simons is one of the greatest trainers in America and his men are always in the well known pink.

He is a great fellow with it and the boys are all for Monk, now and forever.

THE SCORE BOARD

Watch It Carefully For Complete Information

Often only the officials and captains know what a certain penalty is for. We have sketched out the following to inform you. Each penalty is numbered below. When a penalty is inflicted the number of that penalty will be hung on the score board.

Please understand violations of rules are rarely intentional. They usually come from over-anxiousness, excitement and most often from the highly technical character of the present game.
