Instead of taking a swing at all of the major games today, your Demon Dopester has decided that he would prefer to take ten or twelve of the "toss up" or near "even" affairs and go all the way out on the limb with them.

The chloroform may be administered immediately after the scores are in, Watson!

We're off:

'BAMA-TENNESSEE — The drive from Tuscaloosa up to Birmingham is very beautiful. The trees are wrapped in autumn's brown. Red Mountain's ozone is invigorating, especially to the native sons. Alabama by a nose.

GEORGIA TECH-MICHIGAN — The Wolverines ain't what they used to be. Kipke has a young team that has a long way to go. Georgia Tech is traveling hither and yon in October of this year ... Durham ... Ann Arbor ... and New Orleans ... It's just another trip, so to speak, for the traveling Engineers ... Let's have it over with. Tech by a shadow.

KAINTUCK-NAWTH CA'LINA — Chet Wynne is very hopeful of his new Wildcats. Carl Snavely is equally ambitious for his new Tar Heels. We would like to leave it to you. Both have been defeated already. But the limb is waiting for us to climb out on. The stadium at Chapel Hill is picturesque. A tie won't surprise us but we lean toward Kaintuck.

HOLY CROSS-HARVARD — Fair Harvard is in for a busy afternoon. They couldn't do better than 10-7 over Holy Cross a year ago and the visitors are much stronger this season. To date, we can't find any indication that Harvard is stronger. A firm vote for Holy Cross.

YALE-BROWN—A tottering vote for the Eli Bulldog. Go get 'em, Ducky!

MINNESOTA-PITT — Bernie Bierman has everything that it takes this fall. Give the old Master the material and he'll do the rest. We'll stuff the ballot box for the Gophers regardless of how you feel about the Panthers.

VANDY-AUBURN — Jack Meagher's Plainsmen will trip some one. It may be Vandy. Yet, we doubt that they're ripe enough yet. A nod toward the Commodores.

ST. MARY'S-FORDHAM — There's a long train ride involved for the Gallopin' Gaels. They took in Niagara Falls and the World's Fair last year and still won. They will confine their sightseeing to the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty and the Polo Grounds this time. The Gaels by a length over the Rams.

CHICAGO-INDIANA — Clark Shaughnessy gets our vote of confidence to take the Hoosiers.

NOTRE DAME-CARNegie TECH—Elmer Layden and the Ramblers by two votes.

CAL-U. C. L. A—Cal's little brother of "Down South" is about ready to administer Papa a sound thrashing. Bill Spalding has been bringing the Bruins along steadily. This year though we give Bill Ingram and the Bears a weak glance.

GEORGIA-TULANE — The Spanish moss is very pretty in Audubon Park now. The Packenham Oaks are most impressive. Lake Pontchartrain is blue. The sun shines bright —most of the time. The Red Bulldogs of Athens are not here for a train ride. The Green Wave does not plan to be a perfect host. Take your choice.

Dad: “Now that your mother’s away for the summer, you’ll have to see that I get up in time for work every morning.”
Daughter: “All rightie, Dad: I’ll try to get in on time.”

Mister, what’s the chief function of the skin?”
“To keep us from looking raw.”

“Do you know how to make a peach cordial?”
“Sure. send her some candy.”

“Honest now. do you like Sadie?”
“Well, she’s got a good heart and she means well.”

“Neither do I.”

Ignorance
I am glad I am not a clever woman
That I may not see your faults laid bare.
I am happy that I am merely human,
And can see you perfect, standing there.

Native: “Well, what do you think of our little city?”
Visitor: “I’ll tell you, brother, this is the first cemetery I ever saw with lights.”

Colonel (instructing fliers): “Now what’s the first thing you do upon making a landing?”
Pupil: “Thank God.”

Customer: “Hey, there’s no turtle in this turtle soup.”
Prop.: “No, and you won’t find any horse in the horse radish either.”

“What color is best for a June bride, Mister?”
“I’d prefer a white one.”

June: “Did you see Jan’s new slave bracelet?”
Teddy: “No. Where is she wearing it?”
June: “On the third finger of her left hand.”

First Student: “Who invented work, anyway?”
Second Student: “You needn’t worry—you’ll never infringe on his patent.”

“Did you vote for the honor system?”
“You bet I did, four times.”

He: “I’ll bet I know what you are thinking about.”
She: “Well, you don’t act it.”

John: “Yes, I had a little balance in the bank, but I got engaged two months ago, and now——”
Joan: “Love makes the world go round.”
John: “Yes, but I didn’t think it would go round so fast as to make me lose my balance.”

One man with a car will boast to a lass
How far he can go on a gallon of gas:
While another, much wiser, will proudly recall
How far he can go with no gas at all.

Judge: “What steps did you take when the trouble started?”
Prisoner: “Long ones.”

Larry: “We’re going to give the bride a shower.”
Vern: “Count me in. I’ll bring the soap.”

Mike: “Pat, what did you do when it started to rain?”
Pat: “Oh, I took off my clothes and sat on them.”

Customer: “What colors have you in window blinds?”
Clerk: “Window blinds are all shades. Ma’am.”

Mother: “And what did mamma’s darling learn in school today?”
M. D.: “I learned two kids not to call me mamma’s darling.”

There is much to be said in favor of Gus.

Gus is a swell fullback. Nice fellow, too. But it's too bad about his sports clothes. If he'd only make a few deft selections at Spalding's, Gus would be a 100%.

*Right now Spalding's is featuring a variety of slacks ... and a brilliant array of accessories, including many worthwhile contributions to your tie-rack ... and shirt drawer.

TULANE ALMA MATER
(Sing as the Band Plays)

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to seal!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive, Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

"Scissored from Zipp Newman’s column in the BIRMINGHAM NEWS"—

If you like satire then you’ll like Jim Downey’s “Code of Competition for Football Officials.” Jim was asked by the Master Organization of Football Officials to draw up a code to be submitted to Washington. Having a satirical mind, Jim produced the following code which went over like a ton of brick disappearing from the top of Niagara Falls.

Just remember it’s all in fun and not an underhanded rap at officials. Jim happens to be a grid official himself:

This Code of Fair Competition is presented by the following organizations and associations, which are truly representative of the industry:

Amalgamated Whistletooters of the Fried Chicken Belt;
Cockeyed Clockwatchers Protective Association;
Fugitive Chapter of the Chain Gang Boys;
American Society of Bottle Dodgers.

WHEREAS, the profession, or as it is sometimes called, the racket, of football officiating, has come into some disrepute, due in part to the popular, though erroneous, belief that football officials are chosen from alumnae of various penal institutions. However, a great many abuses abound within the profession itself, and this Code of Fair Competition is designed to eliminate some of these abuses and standardize others—those eliminated being non-revenue abuses, and those standardized being of a character calculated to assist officials in making a living.

The slogan of the profession is hereby declared to be: “There may be drinking in the stands, but we get all the boos!”

Definitions
A football official is hereby declared to mean a grown man who gets out on a Saturday afternoon in a pair of white pants and follows a bunch of young Americans around a reformed cow pasture while they gouge out each other’s eyes and kick out each other’s teeth. It is customary to toot a whistle during this performance.

Some football officials have read the rules, others have not. This is not an important item, as those who have read them can’t remember them, and those who can remember them never did understand what they were about.

A football game is 60 minutes of play, divided into four quarters of 15 minutes each; provided, however, that in the event the timekeeper’s watch stops, or the team on which the officials have up their money is behind, the last quarter can be extended until a new watch can be procured, or the proper team has scored enough to remove from jeopardy the investments of the officials. In the event the team on which the officials are betting is ahead, and the other side threatens to score in the last five minutes of play, the last quarter can be shortened to take care of the situation.

Administration Of The Code
All questions or disputes arising under the Code shall be submitted to a Code Authority, to be composed of men who are not and never have been football officials. If they can’t do any better interpreting a Code than they can a book of rules, we would all go broke.

The STYLE COMMITTEE shall be composed of Colonel Berry, Stanley Robinson, Frank Thomas and Clyde Guthrie, and shall have supervision over the proper costumes for officials.

Between halves some dirt shall be rubbed on costumes and dampened with water in order to give the appearance of great exertion.

The GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE shall consist of officials who thought they ought to have gotten games that they didn’t. They shall assemble once each month and rant to their heart’s content.

Unfair Trade Practices
No official shall participate in the game. He cannot advance the ball by bucking the line, receiving a pass, or in any other manner except coaching, and shall not be permitted to run interference for either side.

All games must be on a straight fee basis, either by the game, or on the following schedule of special services:

Moving ball, either way .... $ .25 per foot
Allowing linemen to have brass knucks ........... .50
Each measurement for distance .................... .50
Headlinemen slipping links of chain ............. .10 per link
Permitting mayhem .................. 2.00
Seeing infractions of rules carrying penalties .... 1.00 per 5-yard penalty
Not seeing any of above .......... 1.50 per 15-yard penalty
Seeing an off-side on a touchdown play ........ 5.00
Not seeing any of above ........ 1.50 flat
All fees should include police protection in leaving the field after the game.

The cover design of today's program features Miss Louise Arny, student of Newcomb College of Tulane University. The clothes for the photograph came from D. H. Holmes Co., Ltd.

Tulane and Georgia have met eight times previously in football. The Greenies have won four games from the Bulldogs, lost three and tied one.

The record:

1919—Tulane 7, Georgia 7.
1927—Tulane 0, Georgia 31.
1928—Tulane 14, Georgia 20.
1929—Tulane 21, Georgia 15.
1930—Tulane 25, Georgia 0.
1931—Tulane 20, Georgia 7.
1932—Tulane 34, Georgia 25.
1933—Tulane 13, Georgia 26.

Harry Mehre, the Georgia coach, is a former star of Notre Dame. Mehre was one of the greatest centers ever produced in football. He is a whimsical character off the field and a master strategist on the bench.

Charlie Martin, the Georgia business manager; H. J. Stegeman, the Bulldog athletic director; and many others of the Georgia football corps, are with us today. We also have the Atlanta sports writers with us. It is a pleasure to have all of these gentlemen as our guests.

Georgia next week meets Alabama's Crimson Tide at Birmingham while Tulane will be battling the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets here before a Homecoming crowd.

Charlie Wiggins, in charge of the Wave Homecoming, has a colorful program mapped out for the "game sidelights" and also an interesting before the game celebration.

GETTING GAMES: Every man for himself. It is considered fair competition to write anonymous letters discrediting other officials, boosting yourself, or threatening to blow up the stadium unless appointed. It is OK to impersonate rich alumni, fake telephone calls, blackmail coaches, kidnap officials who got in ahead of you, or practically anything else—the main idea being to get that game.

Conduct Of Officials

Before each game all officials who are to participate therein should get together and decide by ballot which side they are going to bet on. This tends to promote harmony and keep down disputes between them on the playing field.

It is preferable that timekeepers be equipped with watches. It is also desirable that the other officials inspect the timekeeper's watch each game to ascertain if it will run, and if so, if it is wound up. If a timekeeper is found not to have a watch, or if he has one that will not run or is not wound up, time should be judged by the sun, and when it seems like there should be about three minutes to play, a fire should be built and an egg put on to boil. When the egg becomes hardboiled, it is probable that the three minutes is up.

Regular football rules shall govern all games, if known. If not known, just get along the best you can until somebody turns up that does know. That will probably be the coach on one side or the other. In that event, every time you see him jumping up and down on the side line and calling your names, penalize the other side 15 yards.

Officials must not fight on the field, no matter how much they get peeved at other officials, coaches and parents.

Proper respect must be shown substitutes as they enter the game. All officials must report to them at the sidelines and be properly introduced. If the substitute's family is in the stands, it is nice to bring them down and meet them, too. They can sometimes be of assistance in pointing out little eccentricities of their children, such as hallucinations of grandeur and a tendency toward murder. After these formalities, the substitute should be searched for scrap iron and escorted on the playing field by the officials—one of whom should walk ahead scattering rose petals.

In the event a whole new team busts on the field at one time, "a la Howard," the officials shall join hands and ring around the rosy three times and kiss each such substitute.
