PRESIDENT DINWIDDIE

Dr. A. B. Dinwiddie, president of Tulane University, never misses a Tulane football game even if he must forego his beloved sport, fishing, to see the contest. He is one of the most ardent of followers of the big Green Wave. He's following his Tulane boys today.

When Brains Count!

In designing a good motor oil and motor fuel, brains count—just as in football. "Standard" Engineers in the largest petroleum research laboratory in the industry often go into a "huddle". That's one of the reasons why more motorists in this territory use "Standard" than any other brand.

"You are concealing something from me," said the hero.
"Certainly, I am," replied the girl, "I'm no Salome."

1st Old Maid — "Would a long stocking hold all you would like to get for Christmas?"
2nd Old Maid — "No. But a pair of sox would."

Judge: "Who was driving when you hit that car?"
Drunk: (Triumphantly): "None of us; we was all on the back seat."

Judge — "I cannot conceive a meaner, more cowardly act than yours. You have left your wife. Do you realize that you are a deserter?"

Sam — "Well, Judge, if you knew dat woman as well as I does, you wouldn't call me no deserter. Judge, I'se a refugee."

She — "So, you were shipwrecked. How did it feel when the waves were breaking over you?"

He — "Very wet, madam, very wet."

Headman — "Who told you to put that paper on the walls?"
Decorator: "Your wife, sir."

Headman — "Pretty, isn't it?"

"And you think he will love me even more when we are married."
"I know so my dear. Why he's just crazy about married women."

"What's the idea of all the crowd at the church?"
"There's a traveling salesman down there confessing his sins."

HEADQUARTERS

Naturally you will want to make your headquaters at the Roosevelt. Again this year as usual it will be the headquarters for all football activities in New Orleans.

You will like the tasteful luxury and the home-like atmosphere of the Roosevelt where the traditions of Southern Hospitality are lived up to the year 'round.

FRANKLIN MOORE, Manager.

NEW ORLEANS
UNITED
THE FIGHTING RED-ON-THE-HEAD

John (Red) McCormick, one of the stormiest Waves of the big Tulane machine, is one battling guard.

Take it from Ted Cox, Bernie Bierman and the rest of the Greenie coaching staff this junior is scrapping every second he is on the football field. He is the lightest man in the line but makes up for this shortage by his magnificent battling.

Red is from Monroe, Louisiana, and has won the heart of every Tulanian by his clean sportsmanship and hard play.
Southern Conference Play Today

Last Thanksgiving we said we would try to refrain from starting a football review off with "A time honored classic held the interest of Louisiana's population today" and so, sticking to such grim promises, we won't use it again.

Instead we'll say "Louisiana's population today was held enthralled by its ancient classic between Louisiana State University and the Green Wave of Tulane."

Ain't that something?

Anyway, interest was aroused to a high pitch at New Orleans and Birmingham where the Southern Conference's two leaders engaged in all important contests.

Tulane, meeting Russ Cohen's Tigers and Alabama engaging the Georgia Bulldogs are the high spots of the Turkey Day clashes.

In each case the championship contender is the favorite but being the favorite may mean in blunter language "each team is on the spot." At least, the honored foes from Baton Rouge and the legions of Georgia are prepared to put up a stiff battle.

Mayer Israel's
Where Tulane Goes For Clothes

Other games of interest today:

- V. M. I. vs. V. P. I.; Virginia vs. North Carolina; Washington and Lee vs. Duke; Auburn vs. South Carolina; Clemson vs. Furman; Florida vs.

South Carolina: Georgia Tech; Kentucky vs. Tennessee; Maryland vs. Johns Hopkins; Ole Miss. vs. Miss. A & M.

This meeting of Tarheels and Cavaliers is an important one in the South Atlantic states while a great deal of attention will be paid the Georgia Tech-Florida contest at Atlanta. Florida has yet to beat the Golden Tornado in its history.

Auburn's attempt to win a conference game at Columbus, Ga., where the Plainsmen meet the Gamecocks of Columbia, will also hold interest.

The same is true of the game between the Mississippi Aggies and Ole Miss. Tulane and L. S. U., both have played the Aggies while the Tigers also played Ole Miss.

Both Tulane and Louisiana State are in top condition for their battle today unless old injuries are reopened at the last moment.

Let's see.

Here is one of most remarkable action photos ever taken of a great play. Note number 33, Jerry Dalrymple, star Tulane end, is shown spilling the entire interference of Dickens’ in the Georgia game and stopping the ball carrier cold. Note the three men in a heap at Dalrymple’s feet and the widely flung arms of Jerry stopping Dickens. The force with which the Georgia back was running is shown by the expression on his face and his tightly clenched right fist. Tulane beat Georgia, 25 to 0.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane’s Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e’er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts’ devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

The Triple Threat Man From The South!

Don Zimmerman, ripping, slashing, twisting whirling sophomore der­vish of Tulane's Green Wave is one of the football stars of the year.

Zimmerman is a fine passer, punter, ball car­rier, defensive man and a great halfback if the other description isn't suf­ficient.

He is a Lake Charles high school product.
THE OLIVE AND BLUE

Here's a song for the Olive
And the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's
Tried and true.
Here's a pledge of loyalty
To thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never
Will say die.
And here's to the hearts that
Are true,
To the men of Tulane,
Who are fighting for her name.
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus
Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field;
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.

When those Greenbacks charge
Through the line,
They're bound for victory,
Hail, Green Wave, for you
We give a cheer.
Hail, Green Wave, for you
We have no fear.
So every man in every play
And then we'll win that Game today.
Hurrah! For Old Tulane.

Did You Know?

The first intercollegiate game was played between Rutgers and Princeton in 1869.
The highest score made is 222 to 0, Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland University, in a 45-minute game, 1917.
The largest number of touchdowns in a single game is 32, Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland, 1917.
Sevenne played five games on five successive days, defeating Texas A. & M., Tulane, L. S. U., and Ole Miss, without being scored on, 1899.
Longest punt, 108 yards, by Douglas, of Tennessee, against Clemson in 1902.
The most successful consecutive trials for goal, 16, by James Presa of Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland, 1917.
Most difficult angle of successful goal for point after touchdown, made by Orville Overall of California vs. Stanford, 1903. Made from 20 yard line within 1 yard of right side line, tying the score.

Did You Know?

Longest run from scrimmage made by Willis Terry of Yale vs. Wesleyan, 115 yards.
Most touchdowns in one season made by Jim Thorpe of Carlisle Indians, 25 in 1912, scoring 198 points.
Grange made 4 touchdowns in 12 minutes, Illinois vs. Michigan in 1924.

That Vic Halligan was chosen all-American tackle by an eastern writer a year after he graduated from Nebraska. It seems that the stories of his ability were just beginning to filter thru to the east.
