WE PRESENT THE TEXAS AGGIES

The big Green Wave today faces perhaps the strongest team of the Southwestern Conference—none other than the terrible Texas Aggies!

The squad from College Station has invaded New Orleans in full force with hundreds of Maroon and White supporters to cheer them on. This afternoon, at the Greenie stadium, they have high hopes of lowering the flag of Berman's men.

Here we have Coach Matty Bell waving his lads on as they made ready to unleash their attack on the Olive, Green and Blue. It is Coach Bell's first year as head of the Aggie squad and a victory over Tulane would bring the team national honors.

The husky young athlete with oval under arm and hand outstretched, stiff arm fashion, is Captain Tom Mills, veteran quarterback of the Texans.

He is known far and wide as a field general who runs as well as directs the team. He is an all-around player.

The big center pictured on this page is Joe Brown, of Alvord, Tex., and a letter man from last season.

He is considered the best pivot man in the Pan Handle state and a natural scrapper.

It will be interesting to watch his work today against Chaggert Upton, Tulane's sophomore star.

Next we find Brooks Conover punting one high and handsome.

It is almost enough to say that he will give Banker plenty of competition in sending long spirals down the field.

This affair will furnish plenty of kicking thrills as both Conover, the Dallas Demon, and Bill Banker, the Blond Blizzard are known toe artists.

Both kick high ones and get distance.

It may be a battle of ends as well in covering the punts.

Anyway, these Texans can be counted on to show New Orleans fans a great afternoon of football.

Both the Aggies and the Greenies are looking toward higher honors in their respective conferences.

The Aggies arrived in New Orleans at 8:50 a. m., Friday and immediately trekked to the Monteleone Hotel, which they made headquarters.

The team is in fine condition and Coach Matty Bell said the starting line-up was the same as last Saturday with the exception of one of the guard positions. Van Zandt will start at one guard instead of Richter.
OCTOBER ZEPHYRS

Just to get some idea of the speed of the Texas Aggies, listen to this. Ted Cox scouted the boys from College Station last week. Charlie Dufour of The Item-Tribune was interviewing the Greenie line coach upon his return. Ted was telling with emphasis of the great weight of the whole Aggie team. Dufour listened intently and upon conclusion, said:

"Such weight must reduce their speed. You wouldn't call them fast, would you?"

"Listen," says Mr. Cox, "these big fellows are so fast they spend their spare time chasing rabbits for amusement. Oh, no, they're not fast. They just run like scared deer!"

Chuck Collins, North Carolina gridiron coach tells of the time Notre Dame was playing a second rate eleven and the Rambler varsity had visions of an afternoon spent beneath blankets on the bench.

And what a day for blankets. An icy wind was blowing across a gridiron inches deep in snow. The snow had covered the field to the extent of obliterating the lines. As Chuck tells it Rockne came out and marked the field off with lamp black and then much to the surprise of everyone ordered the first string to start the game.

The little visiting team lined up for the kickoff, wearing nice, warm mittens. The Rambler first string shivered and shook in anxiety awaiting the start. Came the first scrimmage.

Twenty-two men dug into the snow. Eleven Notre Dame men came up wearing nice, warm mittens.

The Greatest Forward Pass

Hugh Whatley
Hugh Whatley may give the thousands of fans a thrill at any-time today. He is that type of halfback. This lad from Rayville runs with great speed, is shifty and lifts his knees high. He is hard to tackle with such a leg movement and follows his interference remarkably well. Getting him past the line of scrimmage is not such a great problem and stopping him once he gets going is some job.

His brother, John, another flashy little halfback has been out for some time with injuries but may be back in the game today also.

If so, watch the Whatley brothers.

Myrtis Mangum
Here is a young fellow, weighing around 185, who is ready to turn loose his all on the Aggies. Mangum, a sturdy guard, is just now getting in condition following injuries and should prove vital today along the front wall of the Wave.

He charges low, is aggressive at all times and just the type of player to find his way into opposing backfields to drag his man down for losses.

Mangum is a veteran and has had experience in backfield play as well as line work, thus giving him added strength and experience, fitting him for the role of an ideal guard.

Let's go, Mangum!

THE INSIDE ON THE MISSISSIPPI AGGIES

Football lover of New Orleans will have a treat in store next Saturday when the Big Green Varsity takes out to conquer the Maroon of Mississippi A. & M.

The boys of Coach John Hancock are coming along fast, regardless of scores before they get here. Today, they play the mighty Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech, national champions, and their showing against Tech and Tulane will be compared closely by Greenie followers.

The Aggies have struck two hard opponents in two weeks. Their opener against Henderson-Brown brought the Maroon against one of the strongest unaffiliated outfits in the South. The Arkansans boast a veteran team this year and one that has mowed through almost all opposition the past two seasons.

The fact that the game is to figure largely in the Southern Conference title race will bring out between 18,000 and 20,000 fans.

Get your tickets early. They will be on sale at 205 St. Charles Street beginning Monday and the early callers will get the best.

So plan now to start the day Monday by purchasing your tickets.

See Pappenheimer and mates go against the Green Wave!

TULANE'S BLOND BACKFIELD

Did you know that Tulane University again presents an all-blond backfield. Banker, Armstrong, Massey and Seeuw are all white topped. This combination would offer Banker as a triple threat; Massey as a triple threat; Armstrong as a passer and ball carrier; and Seeuw as a line plunging fullback.

Plenty of versatility there.

Presenting Tulane University's veteran coaching staff, the guiding factor in what the Greenies will do this season on the gridiron.

In the center is Coach Bernie Bierman while at the extreme ends will be found Ted Cox, big line coach and Pete Mailhes, scrub coach. Next to Ted is Lester Lautenschlag-ger, backfield coach. Next to Mailhes is Ted Bank, freshmen coach.

Bierne and Ted received their football training at Minnesota; Bank acquired his gridiron knowledge at Michigan and Lautenschlager and Mailhes came up from Tulane.

The other pictures on this page bring to your attention three promising sophomores and one veteran.

In the upper sets are Doyle Magee and Calvert De Coligny, a couple of natural threats while Dick Bankston, the big husky at the bottom is a powerful sophomore tackle. Morris Bodenger, guard, at the other lower corner is a great power both on offense and defense and a tried veteran.
TODAY'S PLAY IN SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

The eyes of Dixie today are on the Green Wave of Tulane.
The Greenies are facing the strongest opposition of the afternoon in the South although the outcome of the game will have no bearing whatsoever on the Southern Conference title race.
The Texas Aggies are highly rated for the Southwestern Conference title chase and while neither the College Station team nor the Wave has its crown aspirations at stake, both want a victory.

Mississippi A. & M., will furnish Georgia Tech's first opposition of the season. They meet at Atlanta. Furman will come out of the S. I. A. A. ranks to tackle Georgia at Athens. Ole Miss will challenge Alabama's powerful Crimson Tide at Tuscaloosa. Auburn tackles Clemson at Clemson. Vanderbilt will be host to Ouachita.

Tennessee will invade the den of Chattanooga Mocsins. Kentucky will be at home to Maryville. Florida and V. M. I., are staging a party at Tampa. Louisiana State will waltz through an hour against Southwestern.

It's a big day along all fronts but the interest centers in New Orleans this afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.

FOOTBALL INTEREST GROWING

New Orleans is rapidly becoming a great football center. A year ago Tulane was talking crowds of ten thousand for some of the big games. This season the figures have doubled and when fair weather prevails, the predictions will strike close.

Football is in an unhealthy condition when each year the crowds do not show growth. If 1928 did not convert several additional thousands of football fans, it naturally is disappointing. If 1929 does not do the same thing, the result is the same.

It should be only a matter of a few years when this section will fill every seat in Tulane’s stadium for all major games—that would mean 28,000 every Saturday.

Let’s start attending all games regularly!

“Red” Dawson

The Greenies will have a little quarterback ready to throw into any breach all year and a man who probably will be heard from considerably this season.

We are now broadcasting the ability of “Red” Dawson, a heady, fast and scrappy backfield man and best of all a sophomore. With two more years to go, he should prove a vital cog in the Green Wave combination.

Dawson, as quarterback on the Greenie freshmen outfit last year, proved that he had all the “makins” of a great field general and with Bierman’s training he should be ready to direct the starting forces next season. He will supply a necessary margin in the quarterback unit of Baumbach, Young and Dawson.

Keep an eye on this boy all along and you won’t be disappointed.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

The Spirit of the Game

As an institution whose fortune is inseparably connected with that of New Orleans, the Public Service family is backing "The Green Wave" heart and soul.

But aside from that, it's a man's game this football business. In rain, slush, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, the true football player fights on to win the game.

Similarly, the Public Service game requires men. In storm, rain, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, street cars must move, electric lights must burn, gas must flow—at all times, in all weather. That's a man's game, too, and men who play it can understand the spirit of men who fight out on the grid.

New Orleans Public Service Inc.

YOU KNOW MONK

It's hard to find Trainer Monk Simons these days when he has time to tell you a few things about his football days let alone pose for a picture. Modesty and pressure of looking after the physical welfare of the varsity keeps Monk from saying much.

Anyway, you can put it down that Claude Simons is one of the greatest trainers in America and his men are always in the well known pink.

He is a great fellow with it and the boys are all for Monk, now and forever.

THE SCORE BOARD

Watch It Carefully For Complete Information

Often only the officials and captains know what a certain penalty is for. We have sketched out the following to inform you. Each penalty is numbered below. When a penalty is inflicted the number of that penalty will be hung on the score board.

Please understand violations of rules are rarely intentional. They usually come from over-anxiousness, excitement and most often from the highly technical character of the present game.
