Grocer—Do you want white or brown eggs, Ma’am?

Bride—The kind I want are white with a yellow polka dot in the middle.

“Do you still run around with that little blonde?”
“‘She’s married now.’
“Answer my question!”
“My wife says if I don’t chuck golf she’ll leave me.”
“Hard luck, old chap.”
“Yes—I’ll miss her.”

During a history lesson a teacher asked his class, “What happened in 1483?”
“Luther was born,” answered a pupil promptly.
“Quite right. And what happened in 1487?”
After a long pause the pupil ventured, “Luther was four years old.”

“Marie, won’t you sing something for our guests?”
“Oh, but, dear, it is so late; and besides they are beginning to go.”
“Yes, but not quickly enough.”

Doubtful Complaint
He—“You dance like a gazelle.”
She—“How does a gazelle dance?”
He—“I don’t know.”

“I’m filled with sadness
I’ve got the blues,
There’s no more mileage
In last year’s shoes.”

Every stomach will have a silver lining if you eat your yeast with the tin foil on.

“I’ll have apple pie for dessert.”
“All out, Sir.”
“Well, then, give me the raspberry.”
“Sorry, sir, but we waiters are not allowed to be offensive to guests.”

Wifie: “Who is that Maude that you talked about in your sleep last night?”
Hubby: “Maude? Why-er, why that’s the name of the horse I bet on yesterday. Why do you ask?”
Wifie: “Oh, nothing. Only that horse of yours has been calling you up several times a day.”

Typewriters have everything now except a key for a non-committal wiggle when you aren’t sure about the spelling.

Nature evens things. The Japanese have almost continual earthquakes, but they have no Wall Street to shake them down.—Robert Quillen.

Correct this sentence: “You can always tell a senior,” said the professor, “by his flawless English.”

That French lawyer, who said: “She is too beautiful to be bad should have seen the cantaloupe we picked recently.” —Macon, Ga. Telegraph.

Jackie (to departing aunt)—“There’s no hurry, auntie, daddy has put the clock a whole hour fast.”

Banker Kicking Against Tech in 1929
TWINKLE, TWINKLE---

This is about stars, new and old.

A young man from Donaldsonville, La., played all last season with Pete Mailhes' scrubs. The passersby paid little heed to Pete's gallant but unsung little band. They paid less to this lad from Donaldsonville. He didn't show all the vim and vigor in the world but he was trying.

Came 1931. Bernie Bierman made the usual promotions from the "B" team to the "A" squad. Bill Schroeder of Donaldsonville was one of the boys called up.

The Texas Aggie, Ole Miss and Spring Hill games flew by but Schroeder was still outside the picture.

Then came that dramatic game of games at Nashville against the Commodores of Vanderbilt.

The little iron soldier, Red McCormick, was taken out of the game in the second quarter — and who should go in but William Schroeder. And how he did go in! For more than two quarters he was in there battling and stopping Commodores.

Another of the many who showed well was Nollie Felts, the sick man who made Vandy ill. Felt's illness was catagious only to the Commodores, however.

He stamped through their line twice for touchdowns, did some beautiful blocking and was seemingly in half the plays until he was carried from the field near the end of the game.

THESE RAMBLIN' ENGINEERS

Coach Bill Alexander, respected by every New Orleans football fan, is here today, as every one in Louisiana knows, with Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado.

The Engineers are primed to give the Greenies a battle to the last ditch and it will be a game in which Tulane must be on its toes from the start.

It is Homecoming Day for Tulane's old grads and they are in the stands by the thousands.

They are hurling back across the field the words of the Olive and Blue in answer to the refrain:

"I'm a ramblin' wreck from Georgia Tech—
And a helluva, helluva Engineer."

The old Tulane men have been in the midst of a big time ever since they started trooping into good ole New Orleans yesterday.

May you come back often and long watch the Green Wave roll!

FLOW BILLOW, FLOW

Next Friday afternoon, Tulane's Baby Billow—the Freshies—will start their 1931 gridiron campaign.

The Billow opponents will be the Alabama freshmen at the Old Tulane Stadium.

It will be the only home game of the 1931 Freshman schedule, the Auburn and Louisiana State frosh games both being away.
COACH W. A. (BILL) ALEXANDER

Georgia Tech's head football coach who is respected and liked wherever football is played.

HOTELS of the Dinkler Chain

From the tradition of the Old South, glows the flame of fellowship and hospitality that takes worldly praise and an envious place in the hearts of all who visit this section.

The upbuilding of superlative hotel accommodations is a natural consequence, having taken its ideals from the famous Wayside Inn, and the comfortable hostelry of the Colonial Days.

Even in this field of Southern Leadership, Dinkler Hotels mark four places of outstanding prominence. They are established with the aim of convenience to travelers, and are located in the leading commercial, industrial and railway centers of the South.

And in Atlanta, Birmingham, Nashville and Montgomery can be found the outstanding features which experienced travelers recognize as being distinctly Dinkler organization. Private bath and radio in all rooms, convenient garage connections, excellent cuisine in dining rooms and coffee shops at each hotel.

Make Dinkler Hotels your home.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

"Hot air" roasting preserves its distinctive aroma and brings out its fresh, full flavor. Ask your grocer for the yellow tin.
