This week Tulane is host to the Tarheels of the University of North Carolina. In the last three years the margin of difference in the Tulane-North Carolina games has been a grand total of four points. This is a nice example of the kind of games that these two perennial powerhouses play. In those three games Carolina's Jim "Sweet" Lalanne was a powerful factor in the Tarheel's game. In 1938, Warren "Bronco" Brunner led the Green Wave to a 17-14 victory. This was one of the Bronce's greatest games. In 1939, the Tarheels and Tulane battled to a 14-14 deadlock. The 1940 game went to the Wave, 14-13, in the closing minutes.

Carolina, always star-studded, has brought another strong outfit down this year. Standouts among the Carolinas this season are Harry Dunkle, blocking back and co-captain, Carl Suntheimer, the other co-captain and center, Frank O'Hare and Leo LeBlanc, both quarterbacks. LeBlanc, like Lalanne, is a Louisiana boy, hailing from Crowley.

* * *

Last week the Greenies were out-scored by a hard fighting and alert Rice team. The Greenies, however, even in defeat, held up their high average of yardage gained, and still rank high in the nation in this department.

* * *

Next week Tulane will celebrate its Homecoming day meeting the University of Mississippi's Rebels in Tulane Stadium. A fine game and many other activities are promised to the returning alumni, winding up with a big Homecoming dance in the gym Saturday night.

With the current season going into its fourth week, only four of the Southeastern Conference's twelve teams retain unblemished conference records. These four are Tulane, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, and Vanderbilt. Before the season is over it is very probable that all of these teams will have been tied or defeated by some other conference team.

PIGSKIN ROUNDUP

Here’s your professor back again picking the weekly winners (?) in a football world that has become slightly cock-eyed. A few guesses:

Tennessee—ALABAMA — the Crimson tide to fool a few people.

Arkansas—TEXAS—Longhorns to roll on.

California—OREGON—strictly on past performances.

Columbia U.—GEORGIA—Bulldogs are good at intersectional victories.

Cornell—NAVY— the Middies seem to be the power of the East.

DARTMOUTH — Harvard — the Big Green of the East seems to have it.

Davidson—VIRGINIA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE — the Gobblins are due.

DUKE—Colgate—not stopping here.

Georgia Tech—VANDERBILT — Commodores get the nod.

LOUISIANA STATE U.— Rice — the professor loves to pick upsets.

MINNESOTA—Pittsburgh—the Golden Gophers by plenty.

MISSISSIPPI—Holy Cross—maybe we’ve been misled, but still the Rebels.

SANTA CLARA—Michigan State—Buck Shaw has another great team.

TEXAS A & M—Texas Christian—one of those wild West shows where anything can happen, but the Aggies, sparked by Derace Moser, get the nod.

A little information on North Carolina's coach, Raymond "Bear" Wolf, in regard to the stars he has produced. Beginning with Darrell Lester the big Texas Christian All-American center, who starred in the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 1936, local fans can remember all of Wolf's great stars. After Lester came Andy Bershak, Carolina end, in '37. Then came Steve Maronic, tackle, in '38. After Maronic were Severin, Stirnweiss, and the very well-known Jim "Sweet" Lanier. Although not all of these boys made a majority of the first team All-Americas, that is still a fine list of stars to turn out in a few years. Look out for this year.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I.
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater! Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully! The incense of thy spirit hath ascended And filled America from sea to sea!

II.
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater! Today thy Children look to thee for bread! Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid! The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

III.
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater! The vista of its glory gleameth far! We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother! There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS:
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee! Pledge we now our fealty true Where the trees are ever greenest, Where the skies are purest blue! Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us! As we proudly sing to thee! Take from us our hearts' devotion! Thine we are, and thine shall be!
