Tulane's Green Wave closes out its 1942 home season with the Georgia Naval Cadets this afternoon.

Tulane welcomes the Cadets and their coach, Lieutenant Raymond B. Wolf to New Orleans.

Lieutenant Wolf is no stranger to the Tulane Stadium. "Bear" formerly was head coach at the University of North Carolina and his Tarheels have thrilled the fans with their play.

Four former Green Wave stars are with the Cadets. John Sims, Ernie Blandin, and Mike Krobert were members of last year's Greenie team while Bill Kirchem played on the 1939 team that went to the Sugar Bowl.

Blandin and Kirchem are Ensigns and Sims, English and Krobert are cadets, receiving pre-flight training.

There are four naval pre-flight schools in the United States. They are located at the Universities of Georgia, North Carolina, Iowa, and St. Mary's College in California.

Each school has 1,850 cadets and the daily life follows as nearly as possible the sea-going routine under which the midshipmen live at Annapolis.

This is the first year of football for the Cadets and thus far they have won five and lost and tied one game.

The Pre-Flighters won over Penn, 14-6; Duke 26-12; Pensacola Navy 26-0; Jacksonville Navy 20-6; and Auburn 41-14. The Cadets were tied by the North Carolina Pre-Flight team and lost to Louisiana State.

Were sorry you were crowded but these days you know there are more people than ever before who depend on the street cars and buses to take them where they want to go.

Staggered working hours will help a lot to spread rush hour travel. Other changes, too, may be necessary as more people turn to public transportation.

Transit is a war industry . . . to keep it rolling is everyone’s concern.

Here’s how you can help:

Have the exact fare ready.

Move away from the entrance of street cars or buses to avoid congestion or delay.

Don’t overcrowd vehicles — wait for the next one.

Avoid rush hours whenever possible. Try to arrange shopping, recreation and social calls at other than peak periods.

I.
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea

II.
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

III.
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS:
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!
