TODAY’S GAME

Some of the results of last week’s football frays pretty well indicate that past records are virtually useless in attempting to anticipate the outcome of any football game. But off the records of the past two weeks it’s pretty certain that today’s entanglement between Eastern power Holy Cross and Tulane’s Green Wave may see more offensive fireworks than the solid stands of Tulane Stadium have witnessed in many a day.

Both Henry Frnka of the Green Wave and Dr. Eddie Anderson of the Crusaders are well versed in offensive football and both have the necessary performers today to unlimber a versatile passing and running attack that may turn today’s tussle into a high scoring game.

Veteran, experienced Charlie Maloy manipulates Dr. Anderson’s offensive, aided and abetted in his operations by the team’s three rushing leaders of last year—Mel Massucco, Bob Doyle and Johnny Turco. All have been instrumental in compiling the Crusaders’ record of 13 touchdowns so far this season—five against Harvard in the opening ball game and eight in the onesided victory over Fordham’s Rams last weekend.

Maloy it was who wound up as the Nation’s ninth best passer last year, netting 1,572 yards or almost a mile in one year of collegiate passing. His running mate, Massucco, also ranked as one of the Nation’s better runners, with a net of 723 yards for the year.

But it was Turco’s running that last week produced a large part of the scoring punch against the Rams, indicating that Dr. Anderson has also brewed a potent running game to accompany Maloy’s passing antics.

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
Today your CAM-PIX photographer takes you on a trip to the Tulane campus. You'll see what he saw and what he photographed in his walk from the Tulane Photo Service to Gibson Hall. There he is on the ground, in a typical pose, shooting an ROTC parade. He's Armand E. Bertin.
His first stop was a class in physical education at Newcomb where archery was the sport of the day.

His next was the physics laboratory at Newcomb.
He caught the Tulane band in its rehearsal when he stopped at McAlister auditorium. Professor John J. Morrissey directs.

Here's the most typical scene of Tulane.
Another typical pose, of the huge research program at Tulane... Dr. Walter S. Wilde conducting a research project involving radio-active isotopes, in his department of physiology laboratory.

A look into the journalism room finds a class in copy-reading underway. Professor George E. Simmons is in the copy-slot.

A visit to the student center catches Tulane faculty members rehearsing their barbershop quartette number for the next Gay 90's party. The fifth man in the middle is the accompanist getting in the act.
Two architectural students dig in on a class problem—building models of a modern design school.

An interlude between classes.
A trio of civil engineering students survey the Tulane campus as your CAM-PIX photographer uses the last bit of film in his camera.
Be Happy - Go Lucky!

EILEEN WILSON, Lucky Star of TV and Radio, says:

At football games I love to cheer
"Go team!" and "Hip Hooray!"
But for a better taste I shout,
"Go Lucky Strike today!"

Thus the Wave defensive backs—Charlie Daigle of Baton Rouge, Lester Kennedy of New Orleans and Ellsworth Kinger of Lake Charles must be prepared for all types of offensive tactics today. And we venture that the defenders Dr. Anderson chooses must be likewise prepared.

For of late the veteran Wave coach, Frnka, has been unveiling trick after trick with this 1951 Green Wave — sophomore though it be — and undoubtedly he has cooked up something special for this undefeated Crusader crew.

First it was Pete Clement, the curly haired sophomore from Reserve, La., whose running and passing — assisted by excellent line work — turned the trick against Miami’s Hurricane. Last week, it was the strong right leg of Max McGee, a White Oak, Tex., product who appeared as a quick kick artist and sent Baylor’s Bear rolling backward into the shadow of its own goal post.

Just what Frnka has dreamed up for the visiting doctor today is still a secret — likely to remain so until the opportunity presents itself, whether it be the first quarter or the last.

But whatever happens, there’s one thing fans can expect. That’s a wide open, football game. For both Frnka and Anderson are known for their deep affection for offensive football, the crowd pleasing kind that is just as likely to strike for lengthy gains from the one yard line as it is from the midfield stripe.

"Pride of the South"
ALMA MATER
We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully;
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!
We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou ledest them to dreams and action splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!
We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus
Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true.
There the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our heart's devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE
Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here a pledge of loyalty to thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane, who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus
Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane.
